Your portfolio contains a minimum of five pieces (maximum of eight pieces), two of which must be drawings. One work must be in color. If the materials are two-dimensional, they must be matted; if three-dimensional, the materials must be in photo or slide form. Submitting a sketchbook is not required but highly encouraged. It counts as one work. Slides may be submitted rather than actual work.

To the applicant: Use this space on the back to give a brief statement about your intentions as an artist. What you are attempting to do with your artwork or what you are learning with your artwork. Discussion of your methods and/or media is useful to the portfolio reviewers.
